editor's message

Iliana Columbie
Editor-in-chief

Hello Kingsway,

My name is Iliana Columbie, I'm in grade 12, and I'm so excited for this year's Cedar Sentinel. This is my second year doing the paper and my assistant, Kyle and I look forward to a great year ahead for Cedar Sentinel. I hope you all get a chance to read the issues and that you are just as intrigued to know what kind of stories are going to be published as much as I am. Your comments or suggestions are most welcome- so please feel free to contact us, and send any pieces you would like featured in the paper. I wish the readers of the Cedar Sentinel a happy reading and a great year.

Best wishes and God bless,
Iliana

Kyle Bacalso
Assistant editor

Hey Kingsway!

I'm Kyle Bacalso and I'm in grade 11. I am proud to say that I am the new Cedar Sentinel assistant editor! September has been both busy and fun. This school year is very different but I'm just glad that we all get to be back on campus. I look forward to reading about all of your experiences and stories you have to share. I hope all of you thoroughly enjoy this semester and have a good time reading the Cedar Sentinel, too. All the best to you and your adventures this year!

Sincerely,
Kyle

MEET OUR TEAM

Cissy Mufora

Hi my name is Cissy Mufora and I'm in grade 11. I enjoy meeting new people, and spending time with my friends. It's only my first year being on Cedar Sentinel, but I'm glad to be apart of it for the year 2020-21. I hope to hear from you all and we're always open for new ideas!

Vanessa Dasilva

Hi, I'm Vanessa and I'm in grade 11. I love to meet new people and start new conversations. I'm so happy to have joined Cedar Sentinel this year even though it is my first year, and I'm looking forward to making new memories. Can't wait to hear from you guys!

WORDS OF WISDOM

“Start writing, no matter what. The water does not flow until the faucet is turned on”

- Louis L'Amour

LIGHT THROUGH A PANDEMIC

looking to God for strength

“If I could offer advice to any person today, it would be to stick by your faith. Know that God is with you and will take care of you all the way through”

- Juan Martinez

“ God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble “

- Psalms 46:1

“So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.”

- Isaiah 41:10

“But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint”

- Isaiah 40:31

“ In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world “

- John 16:33

“Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?”

- Matthew 6:26

A PRAYER DURING THE PANDEMIC

Loving God, Your desire is for our wholeness and well being.

We hold in tenderness and prayer the collective suffering of our world at this time.

We grieve precious lives lost and vulnerable lives threatened.

We ache for ourselves and our neighbors, standing before an uncertain future.

We pray: may love, not fear, go viral.

Inspire our leaders to discern and choose wisely, aligned with the common good.

Help us to practice social distancing and reveal to us new and creative ways to come together in spirit and in solidarity.

Call us to profound trust in your faithful presence,

You, the God who does not abandon.

encouragement

What advice would you give to others to keep their spirits up during the pandemic?

Nicole Kuchurivski

“Every morning when you wake up, find something that gives you a reason to be happy”

Hillary Santos

“I’d say to find comfort in friends and family around them, and explore new hobbies that they maybe never knew they would find interest in”

Maya Dell Erba

“Well something that always gets my hopes up is appreciating nature, like looking at all the pretty colours of the changing leaves. Appreciating little things like this can really put you in a positive mindset”

Kyjuana Marksman

“ The pandemic gives individuals time to be alone, although having so much time to yourself might be very frustrating. You can always spend most if not all your time getting closer to God. Reading His words, singing praise, or simply just talking to Him about life.”

Tyson McGann

“Think back on all the memories that you have shared with your family or friends, the memories where embarrassing moments were like grains of sand, where late nights were commonplace or where laughter grew stomachaches, and thank God for placing those people in your lives.”

Macy Chant

“A piece of advice that I would give to others would be to find something productive that also makes you happy and set goals for yourself to keep you focused on all the positive things in your life.”

thanksgiving

What are you thankful for this thanksgiving season?

“I am thankful for new opportunities and second chances in life. Overall, the ability to be able to have a fresh start.”
- Leonique Watson

“I am thankful that I am able to come to school and still bond with people even if we're social distanced”
- Kyle Bacalso

“I am thankful for the knowledge that is given to me everyday at school”
- Jessica Clayton

“ I am thankful for my family, health and well-being”
- Richard Rodrigues

“ This thanksgiving I am thankful to be alive, knowing that I have a future, goals, dreams, and a support system to help me achieve those goals and dreams.”
- Javon Prince

family

“ I'm thankful that we are here that we are back at school and i'm just thankful for each and every student that is here as well.”
- Pastor Charlee

MOST OF ALL

Thanksgiving Day brings to mind
the blessings in our lives
that usually go unnoticed:
a home that surrounds us
with comfort and protection;
delicious food, for pleasure
in both eating and sharing;
clothes to snuggle up in,
books and good entertainment
to expand our minds;
and freedom to worship our God.
Most of all we are thankful
for our family and friends,
those treasured people
who make our lives extra special.
You are part of that cherished group.
On Thanksgiving, (and every day)
we appreciate you.

Happy Thanksgiving!

- Joanna Fuchs

Give thanks to the Lord for He is good, His love
endures forever.
